Exam format for non attendees, ‘non frequentanti’

Fewer than 10 out of 15 module/lettorato lessons attended.

The exam consists of three parts:

1. Listening and summary writing (30 minutes)
   Students take notes while listening to a news type broadcast (which may be read by the examiner) of approx 500 words. They hear the text twice and then write a 200 word summary.

2. Argumentative essay (60 minutes)
   Students write an argumentative essay (approx 400 words) on the basis of a multiple text input on a given topic.

3. Oral exam (approx 15 minutes plus preparation time)
   This is a paired exam. Both students are given a motion for debate and a few minutes to prepare together.
   Student A presents an argument for the motion.
   Student B presents an argument against the motion.
   Students together debate the thesis and present their personal opinions.

In the case of a single student, a presentation on a given topic may be given.

Each part of the exam carries a weighting of ten points, to give a final mark out of 30.

Exam dates will be communicated on the website and on my ‘unive page’ in due time, nearer the exam session.
