Volunteer with AIESEC.
Our Value Proposition & Benefits

Global Volunteer for Youth

Cross-Cultural experience
Live a Cross-Cultural experience. Experience a new culture while living abroad. Meet like-minded people during the project realization and expand your network across the world.

Develop Yourself
Live in a challenging environment to develop leadership competencies, personal skills and improve language capabilities.

Diverse projects
Find the projects in different regions with variable organizations that care about changing the world to the better. Choose one of the 20000 projects that contribute to the Sustainable development goals.
SMART BRAZIL

- 6 weeks
- Work with the main needs of NGOs: marketing and business administration
- The project is developed to promote an international environment to the NGO
- To establish an operational planning capable to improve needs and enlarge social impact
AIESEC is a global, independent, non-political, not-for-profit, youth-run organization. We place our confidence in youth as the key to unlock a better future. We believe that leadership is the fundamental solution and it can be developed in anyone. We enable young people to develop their leadership through learning from practical experiences in challenging environments. We do this through cross-cultural exchanges and by creating these opportunities.
